FROM: Sergeant David Morgenstern,
Public Information Officer

DATE: March 12, 2012

SUBJECT: Retreat at Twin Lakes Townhomes Shooting Up-date

As of Monday March 12th, 2012, the investigation into the shooting death of Trayvon Martin continues by Sanford Police Department. Investigators are finalizing details in preparation to turn the case over to the State Attorney's Office. The Sanford Police Department feels the investigation will be completed today. There will be a meeting of the investigative team this afternoon to ensure all investigative tasks have been completed. We have canvassed the community several times in an effort to identify all witnesses. We ask if there is anyone with information we have not yet spoken with please contact us at 407-562-2881.

Today at 4:00 pm there will be a press conference at Sanford City Hall. The police chief, mayor and city manager will be addressing the media.
